

Worksheet 1

Gobwit

Tongue Twisters

Gobwit’s vocabulary could be described as a bit strange! Can you find examples of nonsense words it uses?

Then there’s a couple of tongue twisters — try saying these out loud as fast as you can five times! ‘Get Gobwit good garbage’ and ‘Get good garbage or Gobwit Goolgobble off!’

Do you know any tongue twisters?

Write them down and ask a friend to try them.

Write your own!

Try writing a couple of your own tongue twisters using alliteration like the author of this story does. Alliteration is when most of the words in a phrase or sentence begin with the same letter or sound.

Hint: Choose a letter that makes it tricky! For example: The letter R and letters which make an R sound — Roger Rabbit rides round wrapped in red raincoats.
