

Worksheet 1

Five White Mice

Story Sequencing

Cut out these sentences from the story and put them in the right order.

The second little mouse drove a tiny red car.

They liked each other and were all very nice.

Knowing that having nice friends is a wonderful thing.

He would play for the others dressed in a tiny black suit.

She'd take turns with the others skating on big dinner plates.

She'd make them for the others to eat with milkshakes.

The third little mouse skipped with a rope all day.

Once upon a time, there were five white mice.

The fourth little mouse played tunes on his flute.

He'd take the others for rides, driving near and far.

The fifth little mouse baked lots of cupcakes.

The first little mouse loved to wear roller skates.

At the end of each day, they'd sit together and sing.

Worksheet 2

Five White Mice

Write a Script

Imagine the story Five White Mice is being turned into a play.

Write a script for the play by getting each of the five mice characters to introduce themselves to the audience.

Here is an example:

I am the first white mouse.
My name is Milly Mouse.
I love to wear my roller skates.
I take turns with the other mice skating on big dinner plates.

You might like to work in a small group to write your script.
When you have finished, perform the play to an audience
using costumes and props if you wish!

Extra Activity:

Write about why you think having friends is a wonderful thing.