

The Three Wishes

Wishing Rules

1. In this story, it says that the wife 'knew the rules' about having three wishes. How or why do you think she knew about this?

2. List the three wishes the wife and her husband made in the story you just read.

3. What other stories do you know where the characters get to have three wishes?

4. What sorts of things do characters in other stories wish for and what happens to them?

5. Put yourself in one of these stories. If you were one of the characters, what would you wish for?
