

THE CASE OF THE FANCY DRESS FIEND

Word Work

Types of Words

Now you have read "The Case of the Fancy Dress Fiend", can you work on the words in the story?

You will remember that words come in different types. The most common are nouns (the names of things), verbs (words for actions) and adjectives (describing words). Here is an example:

My pet cat (noun) thinks (verb) sardines are delicious (adjective).

Here are words from the story, all mixed up together. Can you put them in the correct column?

awful	blushed	children	collection	comfort	costume
die	eliminated	fancy	father	French	happened
jealous	lipstick	mad	magnificent	miserable	mother
movie	obvious	pieces	said	see	shambles
talk	terrible	wash			swear

NOUN

VERB

ADJECTIVE

