

Worksheet 1

The Gremlin Vine

Here We Have Horror!

This story of the crazy and uncontrollable creeping vine is really a horror story!

Some of the elements of the horror writing genre are: suspense, fear, things getting out of control, bad or evil characters, danger - and strange things happening behind your back!

Do you think you could write your own simple horror story?

Make some notes or draw sketches based on the ideas below to get you started.

- a) Like the “Gremlin Vine” - something growing from a flower pot...
- b) What is lurking in the cupboard under the stairs?
- c) A shadow in the shed...
- d) Strange noises from the neighbour’s dog kennel...
- e) Rumbblings and rustlings in the roof...
