The Enchanted Princess

Spot the Difference

The older son, Helmer, was big and handsome, but he was rather proud and more than a little lazy. The younger son, Hans, was also good looking but where his brother was noisy, he was gentle and quiet.

Helmer was his father's favourite. No matter what he did his father adored him. Hans, despite being hard-working and modest, had to accept being second best.

Use the text above and information from the story to write a character profile about Helmer and Hans.
