

Worksheet 1

The Fisherman and his Wife

Adjective Hunt

An adjective is a describing word. Read each sentence from the story and underline the adjective. Then put the adjective into a sentence of your own.

1. The fisherman and his wife lived together in a little hut near the sea.

2. "Please may we have a nice house instead of the hut?" asked the fisherman.

3. Instead of the hut there stood a beautiful cottage.

4. "Do you want to be a poor fisherman all your life?" said the wife.

5. In the palace there were plates and bowls set with precious gems.

6. A tremendous storm was raging over the sea.

A lesson can be learnt from the fairy tale The Fisherman and his Wife.

What do you think it is?
