

Learning Support

The Garden of Enchantments

1. Put these 'oo' words into the sentences below:

took
good choose too

doom door

look
cool

- a) The courtyard _____ of the house was open.
- b) 'I wish for power! Then I could do what I _____,' said the second voice.
- c) 'I wish only to be _____ and faithful,' said the third voice.
- d) The wicked sisters wrapped up a dead mouse and _____ it to the king.
- e) Farizad brought the old woman a _____ and some figs.
- f) Farizad knew she had to go _____.
- g) 'The Invisible Ones will try and draw you to your _____,' the holy man told Farizad.
- h) When Farizad heard the voices, she longed to _____ up.

Write three 'oo' words to rhyme with:

doom _____

took _____

cool _____

2. Write the five vowels: _____

Use vowels to finish the following words from the story. (You may need a dictionary to help you!)

dis ___ se p ___ ple bec ___ se b ___ ___ tiful

g ___ rantee d ___ ghters j ___ lousy gr ___ f

3. Circle the correct word in the following sentences:

- Once there/their/they're was a king of Persia.
- As the three women spoke, there/their/they're voices could be heard from outside.
- The wicked sisters were filled with joy at there/their/they're cleverness.
- The babies drifted down the river and there/their/they're they were found by the king's gardener.
- The gardener and his wife had no children of there/their/they're own.
- 'Alas, my dear, there/their/they're far away,' said the old woman.
- 'Take this necklace of pearls,' said Faruz. 'As long as there/their/they're white, you will know I am well.'
- 'The singing tree is there/their/they're, behind you,' said the bird.

4. Unjumble the following sentences:

voices the heard king

bowed low father the three met the sisters king the sisters each snatched the wicked away child

sat mourned Fatima tower in and lost children the her

Challenge! Circle the verbs in each sentence above.

5. Imagine you have been granted 3 wishes. What would you wish for and why?

Wish 1: _____

Wish 2: _____

Wish 3: _____