

Worksheet 1

The Luck Child

Amazing Adverbs

An adverb is a word that gives up more information about a verb.

In other words, it adds to the verb.

Adverbs also give us more information about adjectives and other adverbs too!

Add more information to the verbs in the sentences below by choosing the most appropriate adverb from the boxes.

cunningly	nervously	simply	reluctantly
gleefully	angrily	proudly	immediately

1. The king _____ set off to put an end to the luck child.
2. The poor parents _____ handed over the luck child to the king.
3. The robbers _____ forged another letter to take place of the king's.
4. "I _____ followed your orders," said the queen.
5. The luck child _____ knocked on the doors of the castle.
6. When the luck child returned to the palace with the golden feathers, the princess _____ brought him in to see her father, the king.
7. After the king grabbed the oar of the ferry, the ferryman _____ leaped out of the boat.
8. The luck child _____ brought the miller and his wife to the palace to live with him.

Draw the old woman carefully plucking out the beast's golden feathers.

