

Learning Support

The Luck Child

- Write the 'f' sounding letter blends that spell these words correctly:
 - a predictions of the future: p r o _ _ e c y
 - another word for giggle: l a u _ _
 - a communication device: t e l e _ _ o n e
 - something you do if you have the flu: c o u _ _
 - a still picture: _ _ o t o g r a _ _
 - a rodent that burrows underground: g o _ _ e r
 - relating to the body: _ _ y s i c a l
- Circle the correct spelling in these sentences from the story:
 - The neighbours/nieghbours thought the new baby was a luck child.
 - The poor parents did not want to disobey/disobay the king.
 - "Now you are done for my pretty/pritty one," chuckled the king.
 - The miller got a suprise/surprise when he opened the casket.
 - "Who is this hansome/handsome one?" asked the king.
 - The king's letter said, "Cut the boy into a thousand/thousand pieces."
- Use the dictionary to write five words that begin with the words 'child' and 'life'. The first ones are examples.

children

child_____

child_____

child_____

child_____

child_____

lifeboat

life_____

life_____

life_____

life_____

life_____

4. Match the adjectives in the boxes to the nouns below:

roaring	fruitful	handsome	huge golden	broken	happy	beautiful

- a) _____ river
- b) _____ heart
- c) _____ youth
- d) _____ feathers
- e) _____ beast
- f) _____ princess
- g) _____ tree
- h) _____ couple

5. How did the following characters help the luck child?

millers: _____

robbers: _____

old woman: _____

Write about a time when someone helped you.

