

Learning Support

The Magic Arrow

1. Insert the silent letter that is missing in the words below and then put each word into a sentence.

a) gro__n: _____

b) o__n: _____

c) s__ord: _____

d) bello__ed: _____

e) follo__ed: _____

f) narro__ly: _____

g) ans__ered: _____

h) arro__ : _____

2. Rewrite these sentences from the story, putting the capital letters in the correct places:

a) scri and sedana planned to marry when they were old enough.

b) king pulagra sent kalendra to fetch scri so he could marry her.

c) batara guru asked his brother nerada to help scri.

d) during the battle, nerada thrust a magic arrow into sedana's hands.

e) finally sedana pierced the side of the warrior, kalendra.

3. Use the clues below to write words that end with the suffix 'ful'. The first one has been done for you. (Remember: only use one 'l' at the end of the word.)

a) a thing of beauty: beautiful

b) feeling cheery: _____

c) telling the truth: _____

d) feeling joy: _____

e) something that has meaning: _____

f) feeling ashamed: _____

Challenges!

full of gratitude: _____

wanting revenge: _____

4. An anagram is a word that can be made by rearranging the letters from another word. Find an anagram for each underlined word.

a) turn sent into a bird's home: n _ _ _

b) turn once into something that hold's ice cream: c _ _ _

c) turn earth into a vital part of the body: h _ _ _

d) turn danger into a flowery place: g _ _ _

e) turn master into running water: s _ _ _

5. In the story it was the custom for young men like Sedana to visit a holy man and live with him far away from the world of palaces and wars, learning the meaning of life.

What is a custom?

Write about a custom that is important to you and your family. (Think about special occasions such as birthdays, Christmas or New Year to help get you started!)