

Worksheet 2

Fun Facts about the Body

True or False

Here are some statements from the text, but they have been broken in half.
Can you match the two halves by drawing a line from one to the other?

Our brain is a bit like muscles in our body.

The brain is full of cells called

you can't smell anything.

We have over 600

a computer.

The muscles in our arms

neurons.

The left lung is smaller

the femur.

Without a skeleton

pull on the tendons in our fingers.

Inside our bones

to make room for our heart.

The longest bone in our body is

we would be just a blob.

With not much melanin

is soft and spongy bone marrow.

If you are asleep

we have light skin.

