The Twelve Labours of Hercules

Finding 'Phunny' Words

'Hercules went to the wise old prophet at the holy temple of Delphi. "Oh, Wise Man ... What must I do to be forgiven?"'

The words 'prophet' and 'Delphi' above show how the letters 'ph' are put together to make an 'f' sound.

Lots of Greek words have the letters 'ph'. Many English words have been derived from this spelling pattern.
