

Worksheet 1

The Pearl Dragon

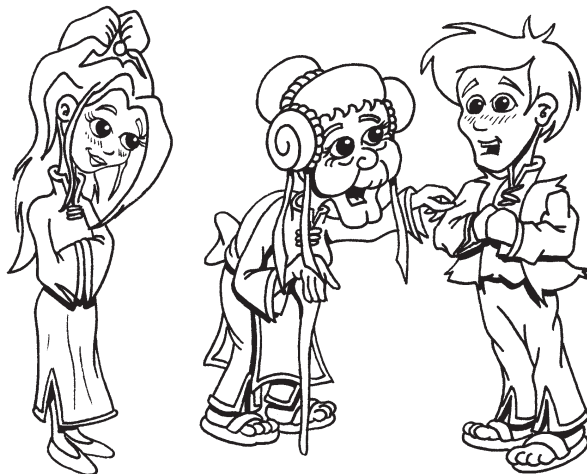

Choosing Conjunctions

A conjunction is a word that joins two sentences together.

The sentences below are a storymap of the events in 'The Pearl Dragon'. Complete the sentences by using one of the following conjunctions:

and because so but

1. The poor Chinese woman and her only son farmed a small patch of land _____ the ground was poor.
2. Chang decided he would ask for help _____ he set off to find out what he could do.
3. Chang agreed to ask the people's questions _____ he was grateful for their kindness.
4. Chang asked each question _____ he set off back down the mountains.

5. Chang married the beautiful girl _____ while he was away his mother went blind.
6. The magic pearl shone beautifully _____ his mother could see again.