

REVISION OF SPELLING

Common Misspellings

A quick reminder:

Many words are difficult to spell because one or more letters don't make their usual sound.

"I'm a rat catcher," he said. "They call me the Pied Piper."

"You can get rid of all the rats?" laughed the mayor, when he had heard the piper's story.

"Really? And how much would that cost us?

"He turned and winked at the town elders.

"A penny a head," said the Pied Piper.

(From The Pied Piper, Myths and Legends, Ziptales)

The words in bold type above are commonly misspelt because one or more letters don't make their usual sound:

they – 'e' makes a long 'a' sound laughed – 'gh' makes an 'f' sound

would – 'ou' makes 'oo' and the 'l' is silent

said – 'ai' makes a short 'e' sound

EXERCISE 1

Put a line through the misspelled words in these sentences from the story The Pied Piper and write the correct spelling at the end of the sentence.

1. The peep~~le~~ of Hamelin tried everything to get rid of the rats. _____

2. They put donw~~w~~ poison. _____

3. They broght in cats. _____
4. "Mr Mayor, you must do sumthing," they told him. _____
5. A strange yung man arrived in Hamelin. _____
6. He plaid a pipe. _____
7. The music was lovley to hear. _____
8. The mayor said to the Piper, "You shall have your munny." _____
9. There was nothing speshal about the Piper's tune. _____
10. But the rats luvved it. _____
11. They came out of the howses. _____
12. They came from evrywhere. _____
13. A stream of rats looked like a dark flud filling the streets. _____
14. As he played, the rats dropped into the warter. _____
15. The townspeople lookt around. _____
16. They could not beleave it. _____
17. The rats had gon. _____
18. The Piper terned and began to walk out of the town. _____
19. A stream of children poured owt of Hamelin. _____
20. The Pied Piper played and the mouneten opened. _____
21. In went the Pied Piper, and arfter him went all the children. _____
22. Nothing cood bring the children back. _____

EXERCISE 2

Here are some other commonly misspelt words in bold type. Write the correct spelling at the end of the sentence.

1. My sister wore a pritty dress to the party. _____
2. "Put your cloths away!" yelled Mum. _____
3. I was reading an intresting book. _____
4. We allways love going to the beach in Summer. _____
5. We gave my grandpa a suprise party. _____
6. My little brother was excited about his first day of scool. _____
7. The teacher had to seperate the two boys who were fighting. _____
8. I didn't go to the picnic becos I was sick. _____
9. Our family got the frunt seat at the concert. _____
10. Dad had a bad coff so he couldn't run in the marathon. _____
11. The football game was very ruff today. _____
12. I wasn't shure about the answer so I asked my teacher for help. _____

Challenge

These pairs of words are often confused with each other. Cross out the incorrect use of the words in the sentences.

were (rhymes with her) and where (rhymes with bear)

Where/were did my shoes go that where/were over there?

We could see where/were the racing cars where/were about to start.

I couldn't see were/where we were/where going.

My jacket was lying next to where/were my shoes where/were.

chose (rhymes with nose - past tense) and choose (rhymes with shoes)

We choose/chose to go to Queensland for our holiday.

It's really hard to choose/chose a favourite movie.

I had to choose/chose a country to research.

My cousin choose/chose to go horse-riding when she was on camp.

lose (rhymes with shoes) and loose (rhymes with goose)

"Don't lose/loose your new jacket," said Dad.

I didn't want to lose/loose my pocket money so I put it in my wallet.

My sister has a very lose/loose tooth.

Jack's shoelaces were lose/loose so I helped him tie them up.