

Worksheet 1

The Owl and the Pussycat

Use the shapes here to design a head band that will be used for your production.

1. Add to the rectangle until it is long enough to fit around your head.
2. The narrator is to print the name of the poem and the author inside the oval and decorate it.
3. All other speakers are to write the name of their character on the headband. Then inside the oval create an illustration to represent the character whose words you are reading.
