The Lady of Shalott

Imagine that The Lady of Shalott is to be re-written as a modern drama for television.

You have the task of preparing a Brief (an outline of how the story will look) for the film producer. Use the following guide, decide on your version and then write your Brief.

1. What age is the main character?
2. Who is responsible for 'grounding' her or forbidding her to leave her room?
3. How does she spend her time?
4. Who is the young 'hero' she sees riding by?
5. What is it about him that impresses her?
6. She leaves to follow him and meets her death. How?
7. How do the watching crowd re-act? [Remember Lancelot's comment.]
