

Worksheet 1

There's a Train Coming!

What Happened?

In the story, we read about a train crash. All the main details are given about what happened and where.

Can you draw the crash scene?

You might like to number the different points along the track, and explain in a few words what happened, along with the time at which it happened.

