

LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD
(Script)

1

Once upon a time, there was a little girl.

Her mother loved her dearly and made her a red cloak and hood.

3

She was known everywhere as ‘Little Red Riding Hood’.

4

One day, her mother called her and said:

5

I want you to do something for me.

Of course, mother.

7

Grandma has been ill of late. I want you to take her some food.

8

Food?

9

Here is a cake, and some butter. Be careful with them, won’t you?

10

Yes mother.

11

I want you to go straight to Grandma’s. Don’t go into the woods. And don’t stop to talk to anyone.

12

Do you promise?

13

I promise, mother.

14

Very well. Off you go now.

16

She kissed her mother goodbye.

17

Then Little Red Riding Hood set off through the woods.

18

However, she soon forgot her promise. She found herself in the dark, dark woods.

19

Look at the flowers ... and the birds in the trees ... Oh this is such fun.

20

All at once, a wolf came by.

21

Hello, little girl. What's your name?

22

Little Red Riding Hood

23

And where are you going?

24

To my Grandma's.

25

The wolf was just about to eat her up, when he heard the sound of woodcutters.

26

Which way to Grandma's?

27

That way.

28

Good day then.

29

And the wolf headed off.

30

Soon he arrived at Grandma's house.

31

Who is it?

32

Little Red Riding Hood. I have some food for you.

33

Come in, dear.

34

So the wolf went into Grandma's house.

35

When she saw who it was, she escaped into the woods.

36

But the wolf put on Grandma's clothes.

37

He climbed into her bed. And he waited.

38

Little Red Riding Hood arrived at Grandma's house. She knocked.

39

Who is it?

40

It's me.

41

Come in, dear.

42

Little Red Riding Hood went inside.

43

Come closer, my dear.

44

Grandma, what big eyes you have.

45

All the better to see you with, my dear.

46

Grandma, what big ears you have.

47

All the better to hear you with, my dear.

48

Grandma, what big teeth you have.

49

ALL THE BETTER TO EAT YOU WITH, MY DEAR!

50

AAEEGGHHH!!!

51

The wolf grabbed at Little Red Riding Hood.

52

But a woodcutter was nearby.

53

What is that noise?

54

He heard Little Red Riding Hood.

55

He rushed inside to help her.

56

Take that ... and that ...

57

And the woodcutter chased the wolf back into the woods.

58

Shortly after, Grandma came out of the woods ...

59

and joined Little Red Riding Hood.

60

And they all lived happily ever after.

anyone.
