

FULL STOPS – ‘Make it right’ worksheet

The following sentences have no full stops (or other stops). Can you supply them in the correct places, together with capital letters (as needed) to make the sentences read properly?

1. Billy walks to school every morning he calls by and collects his friend Alex

2. My teacher’s name is Miss Peters she is a really good teacher I like her

3. Mary-Jane likes school she is a good student she is also an excellent musician

4. Each morning I have breakfast I put on my uniform I go to school

5. Mary-Jane loves ice-cream she adores spaghetti she doesn’t like brussel sprouts

6. Billy is not a good student he is often naughty his teacher likes him anyway

7. How many marsh mellows have you eaten You will be sick

8. I hate you I never want to see you again you make me sick to my stomach

9. ‘Come on in’ said the doctor ‘What’s the matter’

10. The teacher stormed into the classroom ‘Billy’ she said ‘You have just ruined my day How could you do that to Mary-Jane’
