

SPELLING LESSON 17: Disappearing letters

Extension worksheet

Below are a number of sentences using words which drop letters (when you add prefixes or suffixes). Some are in the lesson, and some are not.

1. Most stand up comedians are at least _____ , if not hilarious. (Causing humour)
2. Mum likes to paint, but her work is really _____. (Horrible)
3. A lot of wealthy people are selfish, but a small number show remarkable _____ to those less fortunate than themselves. (Giving money)
4. When crossing a road, all children are taught to be very _____. (Taking care)
5. It's great to be trusted with a new task, but it's important to be able to _____ people's expectation. (Measure up to what they expect)
6. The best that can be said for most costumes at a fancy dress party are that they are at least _____. (Brightly coloured)
7. My aunt thinks she is an artist, but her typical sculpture is a real _____. (A monster of a thing)
8. Just about everyone these days has a mobile phone, because they are such wonderfully _____ things. (Handy, many uses)
9. Unfortunately my granny is becoming very _____. (Losing her memory)
10. She shouldn't have done it. She is now very _____. (Regret)