

SPELLING LESSON 18: Problem consonants: ph and gh Crossword

ACROSS

1. Electronic device which carries one person's voice to another.
6. In a continuous line, without curves.
7. A completely circular figure, in three dimensions (such as a ball).
8. A written symbol that indicates a missing letter, or shows possession.
10. An automatic expulsion of air from the mouth.
13. The time of darkness between sunset and sunrise.
15. Paid for something (past tense of buy).
16. A current of air in a room (normally cold or unpleasant).
17. The name for king in ancient Egypt.

DOWN

1. The act of teaching (past tense).
2. In speaking, to underline a word or phrase to draw attention to it.
3. The opposite of 'gentle'.
4. A group of words without a verb.
5. To test the gravitational mass of something or someone (verb).
6. A classical composition written for a whole orchestra.
8. The name for the set of letters with which we make up words.
9. An image of something which we have in our mind.
11. A picture or other image, used for information or decoration.
12. If we have eaten all we can, we say it's _____.
14. The quality of being able to stand up to pain and discomfort.