

SPELLING LESSON 27: Silent letters: b, d, g, h, l, p, u and w

Crossword

ACROSS

1. If you think of an object as 100%, this quantity represents 50% (noun and adjective).
3. A person who has been invited to visit, or stay (noun).
6. A person (often armed) whose job is to provide security (noun).
9. When someone borrows money, they are left with a (noun).
10. To put marks down on paper, or key in a digital document (verb).
12. The regular beat of music (noun).
15. The technique of using words with the same sound at the end of successive lines in poetry (noun).
16. A tradesperson who specialises in water systems and sewers (noun).

DOWN

2. The opposite of dark (noun).
4. A light meal consisting of two pieces of bread, with filling in between (noun).
5. A person who takes you round something and explains it (noun).
8. A light boat, typically with oars (noun).
11. To surround something with either paper or cling film (verb).
13. A time division of exactly sixty minutes (noun).
14. To use words in conversation or discussion (noun).