

SPELLING LESSON 30: The fearful fifty Mystery word worksheet

1. A written summary of all the days of the year (noun). _____
2. A place where dead people are buried (noun). _____
3. A sacred song (noun). _____
4. If someone depends on something, they are said to be _____ (adjective).
5. All the things one does to prepare for something (noun). _____
6. When two lines end in the same sound - common in songs and poetry (noun).

7. Every drama needs a hero, but also a _____ (noun).
8. When you can't see the details of someone, because only their outline is visible (noun). _____
9. A person who works for the government (noun). _____
10. In an army, the rank below a captain and above a sergeant (noun). _____
11. The formal union between a man and woman (noun). _____
12. The quality of being so disgusting that you want to throw up (adjective).

13. The place where politicians meet and pass laws (noun). _____
14. To have special rights because of good behaviour or good luck (noun).
15. An object you buy while on holiday and bring back as a memento (noun).

16. A bunch of flowers put together as a special presentation (noun). _____
17. When something happens that you have not predicted (adverb).
18. Next door to something (adverb of place). _____
19. The feeling of being unbelievably happy (noun). _____
20. The name given to the king in ancient Egypt (noun). _____