

SPELLING LESSON 6: Double Headers (double consonants)

Mystery word worksheet

(1) Below are a number of definitions of common words. Can you supply the mystery word? All of them are from the lists in the lesson.

(2) Now write each word out in a full sentence.

accident	accommodation	appreciate
battle	coffee	committee
disappoint	embarrass	grammar
immediate	innocence	occurrence
possession	succeed	tomorrow

1. A popular drink, normally served hot.
2. The act of showing gratitude or pleasure.
3. To cause someone humiliation or distress because of one's foolish behaviour.
4. When something happens suddenly and without warning, and usually in a harmful or uncomfortable way.
5. The study of how language works, and specifically how different types of words are used for different purposes.
6. To 'let down' or not fulfil someone's expectations.
7. A group of people who come together to work on policy or decide things.
8. The name given to the day after today.
9. The name given to anything one owns.
10. The quality of being free from wrong (not guilty), or ignorant of evil ways.