

SPELLING LESSON 7: At the double ('l' before an ending)

Mystery word worksheet

Below are sentences with words missing. All of the missing words have a double consonant (before the ending). All are mentioned in the lesson. Can you provide them?

1. When we saw a 'human fly' climbing up the multi-storey tower block, we _____ at the sight.
2. Because Mum and Dad were both too sick, we unfortunately _____ the outing altogether.
3. While we were in America, we _____ from San Francisco all the way across to New York.
4. A number of people have allergies, and they are no doubt grateful that now all foods are _____ to indicate what ingredients are in them.
5. When on an excursion, children are _____ by their teachers.
6. A popular form of car duco finish is the shiny _____ look.
7. The twins _____ one another in speed, but the taller always seemed to come first.
8. My Mum is keen to get me _____ at another school next year.
9. Although little Suzie looks _____, in fact she's quite a handful.
10. The name we give to the principle that everyone should be treated exactly the same is _____.