

THE BREAD THIEF

Word Work

Smallword Hunt

Now you have read "The Bread Thief", can you work on the words in the story? Since all words in English are made up of the same 26 letters, you can recombine them endlessly. For example a word like dinosaur

can give you the following:

aid, air, an, and, dais, darn, din, do, don, dour, drain, dun, duo, in, ion, is, iron, no, nod, nor, oar, on, or, our, raid, rain, ran, rid, rind, road, roan, rod, ruin, run, sad, said, sand, sari, sin, sir, so, soar, sod, soda, son, sour, sun, us (48)

Here are eight words from the story. Can you find other smaller words inside them?

skateboarding afternoon

lunchtime

someone

neighbourhood

laneways

paperwork

everywhere
