

THE GHOST TRAIN

Word Work

Types of Words

Now you have read "The Ghost Train", can you work on the words in the story?

You will remember that words come in different types. The most common are nouns (the names of things), verbs (words for actions) and adjectives (describing words). Here is an example:

My pet cat (noun) thinks (verb) sardines are delicious (adjective).

Here are words from the story, all mixed up together. Can you put them in the correct column?

asked bald brother creepy fright gangly hideous hot dogs ill imagination narrow odd pies platform pointed sat scar spend started suggested vanished weekend whisked ugly

NOUN

VERB

ADJECTIVE

