

Asgoth vs Jamie

Once in a land, where a boy was born, and his name was Jamie.

Jamie lived in a kingdom called Arcadia. When Jamie was born he had the birthmark on his hand of a dragon.

His father was the king of Arcadia. So Jamie was the prince and had two sisters, their names were Jessie and Kaitlyn.

One Day when Jamie was 17, a dragon flew down to him when he was in the woods. The dragon could communicate in Jamie's mind.

The dragon's name is Firefly. Firefly said to Jamie,

“You are a dragon rider, so you have to ride me to defeat Asgoth the Terrible.”

Firefly had red horns, a yellow face, red flaming eyes, a yellow body and red claw and spikes on his tail and his name was Firefly because he looked like a firefly and had the colours.

Jamie practised riding Firefly, and when Jamie got on Firefly, Firefly said,

“Hold on tight, Jamie!”

So Jamie held on tight and Firefly jumped and flew.

In a couple of days Jamie was able to ride Firefly properly. Jamie saw a man in the woods and Jamie asked,

“Who are you?”

“I am Patrick. And I am looking for a person named Jamie and he has a birthmark of a dragon.”

“Why?” said Jamie.

“Because I am a dragon rider too and I can teach him how to fight Asgoth!”

Patrick taught Jamie how to fight and after two days Jamie was ready to fight Asgoth.

The next day at dawn they set off to fight Asgoth the terrible. Patrick rode on his horse and Jamie flew on Firefly.

When they got to Asgoth's castle they saw a lot of guards and other people surrounding the castle.

The plan to get into the castle was, Patrick and Firefly would distract the men and while they are doing that Jamie would go into the castle. When Firefly was distracting the men Patrick would go into the castle and help find Asgoth and try to kill him.

So when they finished the plan they did it. When they got up to when Patrick went in to help Jamie there was a little change of plan, it was when Patrick went in to help Jamie, Firefly went in too.

Firefly broke the whole castle and found Asgoth. Asgoth called, “Guard attack!!!” So the guards attacked and there were about 5000 guards.

They had to defeat all the guards to get to Asgoth. So they went to kill all the guards and they kept coming and coming.

Some guards were beside and in front of Asgoth to protect him. So they fought them and finally got to Asgoth.

When they got to Asgoth, Asgoth pulled out a sword. Patrick said,

“I'll let you have this one.”

So Jamie pulled out his sword and fought Asgoth. They had a long fight. But in the end Jamie stabbed Asgoth straight through the heart. It was all over.

So they won. Asgoth was dead. They travelled a long way to get to the kingdom of Arcadia.

When they got there Jamie told all the people that he killed Asgoth and even told the king and Queen. They were so happy that Asgoth could not attack the kingdom of Arcadia again.
