

THE LAND OF BAD AND GOOD

In the kingdom of Arcadia, everyone lives in fear of Asgoth the Terrible. All except Jamie. For Jamie has a secret weapon, Firefly the Dragon. If Jamie is brave enough to defeat the great wizard, the land of Arcadia could be free once more.

In the beginning, one million years before dinosaurs, there was a portal of good and a wizard called Vandos. Vandos was making a potion of health so that no one would ever be sick again. One day when he made a potion, something went wrong and no one knew why. It made bad wizards and the land of good was destroyed. It also made a bad portal.

Half a million years later, a bad wizard called Asgoth came along.

A good wizard called Zandos was trying to destroy Asgoth, but Zandos was not powerful enough and someone else would have to destroy Asgoth. Jamie, who was a doctor, decided to help. At the same time Asgoth had found a sidekick called The Medusa. You might be thinking this is the actual Medusa, but this one was even worse!

Asgoth had a plan. The plan was that The Medusa would turn Zandos into stone, making Asgoth even more powerful. The King, King Wilfred the Third, decided to help Zandos. The King brought the bravest Knight, William the Knight.

Zandos found out that Asgoth was trying to turn him into stone and made a plan himself. Zandos would make a powerful mirror to turn The Medusa into stone, but he had to make her look at it.

Zandos gave Jamie a wand and taught him some spells. Asgoth was no match for them.

Asgoth found out what Zandos was doing with the mirror. Asgoth made goggles so that even if any mirrors would get in The Medusa's way, she would still win and the world would be destroyed for ever.

Jamie made health potions because he was a doctor and he was good at making medicine. It was a hard potion to make and even the greatest wizard in the world Vandos could not make it.

When Jamie was making the potion, Zendo sent Jamie and William the Knight on a mission. They were going to go to another dimension called the Land of Freeze. It was a very cold world, about minus 500 degrees. When they got there, Jamie found a special crystal that he put and kept in his pocket. They also found a person frozen to ice. They knew someone else was there. It was Asgoth with The Medusa.

William the Knight got his sword out. He tried his best not to look at The Medusa. Jamie turned the crystals he found in a dragon called Firefly. Zendo gave Jamie his potion, which Jamie gave to Firefly to drink. This made Firefly very strong and he could look at The Medusa.

Asgoth and The Medusa drank another potion and disappeared. The Medusa trained her snakes and made more. Asgoth returned with an army of snakes.

King Wilfred gave Zendo loads of soldiers and knights. Zendo also helped Jamie with his magic skills and taught Firefly to fight.

Asgoth found out about Jamie's potion and made one even more powerful.

Jamie made heaps of his potion and added a little extra but not as much as Asgoth.

King Wilfred died. Jamie knew something was up with The Medusa and Asgoth. Jamie found a snake and knew why. He told Zendo what had happened and took all the men, horses and Firefly to fight against the mighty army of The medusa and Asgoth.

Asgoth was tricky to defeat but Jamie used some spells that no one knew. In the end it was just Jamie, William the Knight and Firefly versus The Medusa and Asgoth the wizard. The Medusa suffocated William the Knight. Jamie killed The Medusa but was hurt. It came down to Firefly versus Asgoth the wizard.

It was a great battle and Firefly was losing, but got back into it and killed Asgoth the Terrible.

Arcadia, the land of bad was destroyed and became New Arcadia, the land of good. Everyone was happy without fear. Zendo was proud of Jamie. Jamie was proud of Firefly. Jamie was named the King of New Arcadia, Land of Good.
